

Fairmount Arts Crawl
Presented by Fairmount CDC
Sunday, April 25, 2010 - 2-6pm

The Fairmount Arts Crawl is a free annual, indoor/outdoor festival for art and music lovers, young and old, which transforms the Fairmount neighborhood into an eclectic showcase of local artists and musicians in its streets, restaurants, businesses, shops, cafes, and bars. The event features emerging and ground-breaking artists in a range of media including painting, printmaking, photography, sculpture, and mixed-media. The festival will include more than 30 indoor art exhibits and music. Children can participate in make and take crafts, face painting, sidewalk chalk art and other interactive entertainment. The Fairmount Community Development Corporation has taken on this fantastic event created and nurtured by the Fairmount Arts Council.

Pricing: Begins at $1,000 for sponsorships with booth space at the event.

Attendance: 3,000

Demographics: families, students, adults 21-54.
