

Fall for the Arts Festival
Chestnut Hill, Philadelphia
Sunday, October 4, 2009

150 talented artists from throughout the Mid-Atlantic region converge in Chestnut Hill featuring oils, watercolors, etchings, photography, sculpture, pottery, wood crafts, jewelry and accessories. Visitors can stroll Germantown Avenue to view and purchase fine arts and hand crafts, enjoy live music or dine al fresco.

Chestnut Hill is located in Northwest Philadelphia, with tree-lined, cobblestoned streets, more than 120 exciting, one-of-a-kind shops, high-end retailers including Chico's, Borders Book Shop, Kitchen Kapers, Talbots, Starbucks's, a boutique hotel, restaurants, gourmet take-out, specialty food shops and fun activities for the whole family.

Pricing Range: $1,500 - $15,000 depending on tour size and logistical needs.

Attendance: 50,000

Demographics: upscale adults, families

Time Frame: 11am-5pm

Contact:
Sharon Tice
Sponsor Philly Events
215 763 1200
sharontice@sponsorphillyevents.com