

Irish Festival at Penn's Landing
Sunday, June 6, 2010
Great Plaza at Penn's Landing, Philadelphia

As one of the many PECO Energy Multicultural Series' events, the Irish Festival celebrates Irish culture featuring Irish music, dancing, food, and entertainment. The 13th Annual Irish Festival is a family event that features well-known Irish musical performers. Guests have enjoyed traditional Irish music from Blackthorn, the Bogside Rogues, Sean Fleming, Peter McDonald, Danny Boys, Con, Scythian, Jameson and Shantys.

There will be bagpipers, face painting, and Irish dancing along with other entertainment for the kids. Local dance schools will conduct dance exhibitions and there will also be an Irish dance contest. The kitchen from Finnigan's Wake will be serving Irish favorites such as Shepherd's Pie, Bangors and mashed potatoes, and pulled pork. Many vendors will be selling traditional Irish goods and crafts.

Pricing: Begins at $1,750 per day depending on setup size and logistics.

Attendance: 10,000

Demographics: Family audience of Irish descent, young adults later in the day for the popular Irish bands.

Time: Noon-8pm.
